THE WAVELENGTH IS MOVING!

Effective with the issue of January 2, 1987, "The WAVELENGTH" TV listing information will be moved from our Sunday paper to Thursday. The format will remain unchanged and listings will run from Friday through Thursday.

Due to cost factors involved, it is no longer feasible to publish "The WAVELENGTH" in our free distribution Sunday paper. We considered dropping the listings completely, but have been able to restructure our costs by moving the television listings to Thursdays. We sincerely hope that our readers who have come to depend on "The WAVELENGTH" will continue to find them useful.

•Turn off lights before going to bed.

"Intro It ignts below going to bearor leaving.

SCHMIDTKE SAID a flame retardant, consisting of 10 ounces of boric acid, 20 ounces of Borax and 2 gallons of water, can be applied to live trees. He said the retardant should be mixed well and applied to the tree with a spray gun.

However, he said this solution is not 100 percent flame proof, but will slow down the action of flames.

Lady Warriors end skid, 45-34

GRANITE CITY — The Warrlors ended a four-game losing streak Thursday night, beating St. Louis Riverview Gardens in a girls basketball game of the bench to drop in 14 goints, leading the Warriors (1-4) to a 45-34 victory. The Rams fell to 6-5.

"Everything finally worked well," said Granite City coach Jahuchings. "We moved the bar well and shot a little better."

Wendy Knollman scored nine points for the Warriors. Marla Toeniskoetter added eight points. Lisa Mills (7), April Barker (4) and Shella Mod 11 goints of the Warriors Marla Toeniskoetter added eight points. in a Southwestern Conference meet.

in a Southwestern contactionmeet.

"I really didn't know that much about them," said Granite City coach Walt Whitaker of the Flyers. "But I saw in a box score where they got 20 points against Belleville East.

"Maybe this is a good sign for "s."

Belleville East.

"Maybe this is a good sign for us."

The signs certainly pointed in the direction of Granite City, now 6-1, as the Warriors won every match except one. Granite City other decisions by technical fall, 15 points or more in recording its most lopsided victory to date.

"The kids were a little more aggressive tonight and started putting people on their backs," Whitaker sair of the Warriorse fell to the Shells. The Warriorse fell to the Shells match battle between the two area powers. Granite City, however, bounced back with wins over Herrin and Marion on Thursday. Against East Side the Flyers appeared to be overmatched.

Freshman Todd Hutchison started the carnage with a 7-3 win over Timmy Ladd in the 98-pound class.

At 105, Rich Smallie won by a forfeit, pushing the team score to 9-0. At 112, Brent Davis scored a 7-0 win over Tyrone Nicholson.

Bill Fritzgeral, the Warriors Florida transfer, got Granite City's first technical fall pounding Ernest Sykes 15-0. The match lasted just 3:59.

At 126 pounds, Scott Moss wasted little time as he pinned Stanford Ogelsby at 1:33. Rich Wilson manhandled Andre Johnson 13-0 in the 132 pound match.

Wilson meanhandled Andre Johnson 13-6 in the 132 pound natch.

Tracy Morrison, the Warriors version of Jim McMahon, sporting a new hair color and style, needed just two periods to demolish Jason Spatial Spounds, Jon Morgan vaulted to a 7-2 lead after the first period and beat Jason Ford 12-6. Dave Knogl pushed the team score to 43-0 when he beat Eugene Jones by a technical fall, 15-0 in two periods.

Granite City's only loss came when Antonio Curren pinned Mike Lynch at 5:06.

Ross Karbarski pinned Andre Taylor in just 40 seconds ending the match and giving the Warriors their final margin of victory.

- YENICE — The Red Devils
have played two home games this year, and anyone who has been to both might have noticed a slight difference in atmosphere between those two nights.

On Dec. 2, the air was electric as
the East St. Loius Lincoln Tigers roared into town for an early shaw famous
si unk mly charged
things up further, and the Tigers
rolled to a 72-59 win.
Friday night, things were, shall we say, a little less thrilling. The cory Venice gym wasn't even filled to capacity as the Red Devils almost yawned their way to a 104-43 win over the Livingston
Eagles in an Illini-Gateway Conference game of the Red Devils
at 4-1, 20 in the conference, while the Eagles fell to 5-2, 1-1 in the conference.
The most thrilling moment

Eagles fell to 5-2, 1-1 in the conference.

The most thrilling moment came with 50 seconds left in the game when senior guard Orlando Love drilled an 18-600 jump shot from the left side, pushing Venice to the 100-point mark for the first time this year. They had 59 points in their win over Marquette Tuesday.

Tuesday.

The Red Devils' bench brigade actually produced the highest-scoring quarter of the night. Active Court Marcher and Lionel Wiley getting 27 points in the fourth quarter.

place, with no other alternative but than to:
"Throw up a prayer, that's all I could do," said the St. Anthony reserve center, after his 16-foot life to the said of the said it undoubtedly would've been suited up in a red and white sweater.

Take, for instance, the first quarter, when Madison couldn't buy a basket with a seven-digit check. St. Anthony's didn't fare more seven to the seven-digit check. St. Anthony's didn't fare more seven to the seven-digit check. St. Anthony's didn't fare more seven to seven the seven to seven the seven to seven the seven the seven to seven the seven and Steven Sanders— cut St. Anthony's lead to 37-34 with just over a minute left in the stanza. The Bulldogs reconstructed their lead by rapping off five unanswered points to take a 42-34 lead into the final quarter.

Behind a resurrected Johnson, who began shooting from the whole gean shooting from everything, Madison chipped ever so gradually at their disadvantage until, finally, they took a 48-47 lead on a Johnson breakaway slamdunk with 3:30-remaining on the clock.

What followed was a bucket swapping session of immense intensity, with each squad trading bases of the square state of the square state of the square square state of the square square

But after taking a timeout, St. Anthony's brought the inbounds pass up the court, then threw four passes, with the final one ending up in Lohman's hands.

up in Lohman's hands.
"We just weren't mentally prepared tonight," said Madison coach Rich Essington. "I think it was a case of an inexperienced team looking ahead to a big game tommorrow night."

St. Anthony's coach Dave Bartlett took a slightly different view on the play of his squad.
"We played as well as we could possibly play tonight," he said. "I was really proud of the guys, they did a great job of keeping their composure out there.

"Even when they started com-ing back on us, the guys kept their cool. I think about the fourth quarter, they were finally convinc-ed they could beat 'em."
